

RESOLUTION SUPPORTING THE NOVEMBER 1995 CHARLOTTE-MECKLENBURG
SCHOOL AND PARK BOND REFERENDUM

33-11

WHEREAS the Charlotte City Council recognizes that the education of the children of Charlotte-Mecklenburg is the foundation of continued community progress;

WHEREAS an effective education system in a growing community demands adequate funding for renovation and expansion of aging facilities and construction of new schools;

WHEREAS the Charlotte City Council recognizes that parks expand opportunities for activities which provide a higher quality of life for all citizens; and

WHEREAS meeting the continually increasing utilization of our parks demands provision of more services, renovation of aging facilities and acquisition of additional land;

RESOLVED, that the Charlotte City Council endorses the school and park bond referendum approved by the County Commission for November 1995 to provide funds for school and park expansion, renovation and construction.

FURTHER RESOLVED, that the Charlotte City Council will encourage other citizens to support passage of these bonds.
