AGENDA

I. Towing and Booting Businesses Ordinance

Staff Resource: Captain Rich Austin, Police

Rusty Perlungher, Police Attorney's Office

Staff will provide a presentation to recommend revisions to the Ordinance in light of the North Carolina Supreme Court case which invalidated fee provisions.

Action: Recommend to Council for approval.

II. Public Safety Zones

Staff Resource: Captain Robert Dance, Police

Mark Newbold, Police Attorney's Office

Staff will provide CMPD's preferred model for proposed ordinance establishing Public Safety Zones.

Action: Recommend the development of Public Safety Zones Ordinance.

III. Door-to-Door Solicitation

Staff Resource: Captain Rich Austin, Police

At the Council meeting in April, City Council referred the issue of door-to-door solicitation to this Committee. Staff will review the background and legal issues around door-to-door solicitation.

IV. Review of Public Safety Efforts

Staff Resource: Lt. Spence Cochran, Police

At the August 24, 2016 Business meeting, City Council made a referral requesting this Committee do a policy review of the City's public safety efforts in business and neighborhood corridors, including coordination with city and state partners. Staff will review the activities/initiatives being used along the Beatties Ford Road corridor.
