

Sec. 21-65. Tree protection and/or planting required on public property.

This chapter shall apply to public entities and owners of public property, and it shall be unlawful for such owners to fail to comply with all sections of this chapter unless specifically exempted there from.