

Ronald R. Kimble
Deputy City Manager
City of Charlotte

Experience

- Deputy City Manager – City of Charlotte (2007 – present)
- Assistant City Manager – City of Charlotte (2000 – 2007)
- Oversees the City's Economic Development, Hospitality, and Intergovernmental Relations Initiatives
- Staff resource for the Economic Development & Global Competitiveness and Intergovernmental Relations Committees
- Led City staff in efforts to bring the US National Whitewater Center and the NASCAR Hall of Fame to Charlotte and the development of the Levine Center for the Arts, AAA Baseball and Panthers Stadium upgrades
- City Manager – City of Greenville, NC (1990-2000)
- Assistant City Manager – City of Greenville, NC (1988-1990)
- Finance Director – City of Greenville, NC (1984-1988)
- Assistant Finance Director – City of Galesburg, IL (1975-1984)

Education

- Bachelors' degrees in Accounting and Business Administration from University of Kansas
- Graduate of the Senior Executive Leadership Institute through University of Virginia

Membership/Affiliation

- International City/County Management Association
- North Carolina City and County Management Association
- Past President Charlotte Rotary Club and Greenville Noon Rotary Club
- Charlotte Sports Foundation Board
- United Way of the Central Carolinas Board
- Safe Alliance Board

As Deputy City Manager for the City of Charlotte, Ronald R. (Ron) Kimble is responsible for economic development, redevelopment, hospitality and tourism, and intergovernmental relations for the City. He has led initiatives including the Panthers Stadium Project, NASCAR Hall of Fame, the Levine Center for the Arts, AAA Baseball, and US National Whitewater Center, as well as the Metropolitan, NC Music Factory, and Mosaic Village. Kimble is the lead staff member for two City Council Committees, the Economic Development & Global Competitiveness and Intergovernmental Relations Committees.

Kimble joined the City of Charlotte in 2000 from Greenville, North Carolina where he served as City Manager for ten years. Prior to his appointment as Greenville's City Manager, he also served the City of Greenville as Assistant City Manager and Finance Director. Prior to his tenure in government posts in North Carolina, Ron was Assistant Director of Finance in his hometown of Galesburg, Illinois for nine years.

He received his bachelors' degrees in Accounting and Business Administration from the University of Kansas in Lawrence, Kansas. He also is a graduate of the Senior Executive Leadership Institute Program through the University of Virginia in Charlottesville.

Kimble is a member of the International City/County Management Association and the North Carolina City and County Management Association. He is Past President of the Charlotte Rotary Club and Past President of the Greenville Noon Rotary. He served as Chair for the Charlotte District Council of the Urban Land Institute (2014-2016). He is past Volunteer of the Year of the Pitt County United Way, is a current Board Member of the United Way of Central Carolinas, and Secretary to the Board of Safe Alliance. He is also co-founder with his wife, Jan of the Jamie Kimble Foundation for Courage.

He lives in Charlotte with his wife, Jan, and has one daughter, Jamie (deceased).

The City of Charlotte provides services to more than 800,000 residents with a focus on Housing & Neighborhood Development, Community Safety, Transportation, Economic Development and the Environment.

Visit www.charmeck.org for more information or call 311 for assistance related to City and County services. View The Government Channel (Cable 16, Time Warner Cable) for the latest programs on topics impacting Charlotte.