SYNOPSIS:

The victim and two friends were walking home from a birthday party around 11:30PM on January 21, 2000. They noticed a car with three or four men inside. One of those men asked the group if they had anything to smoke and they said no. One of the friends walking then heard a man in the back seat asking on a cell phone “What did the people look like who robbed you?”. Two people then got out of the car and started shooting. The victim and his two friends started running but he was the only one struck. He died at CMC later that night.
