SYNOPSIS:

On October 6, 1989 at 21:29 hrs. the victim, David N. McGinnis and friends, were walking on Statesville Avenue when a vehicle with several occupants pulled up along-side. Some words were exchanged and the car drove off. The vehicle continued on Statesville Ave, turning around in a parking lot and headed back towards the group who were walking on the shoulder of the road. The vehicle drove onto the shoulder of the roadway striking David and he landed in a ditch. The vehicle continued towards the others but they were able to elude the car. The vehicle then came back onto Statesville Avenue and turned left onto Durham Lane. The victim was taken to CMC where he was pronounced dead from a head injury as a direct result of this hit & run. The suspect vehicle was described as a four door maroon Mercury Sable with a North Carolina license plate. The witnesses were unable to identify any of the occupants of the suspect vehicle.
