City of Charlotte, City Clerk's Office
ITEM NO.

1. Invocation

PUBLIC HEARINGS

2. Hearing to consider designation of the Old Holy Comforter Episcopal Church (specifically the exterior and interior of the building and the entire tract of land upon which it sits), located at 1510 South Boulevard as historic property.

The Historic Properties Commission bases its judgement on the following considerations:

(1) The Old Holy Comforter Episcopal Church, erected between 1908 and 1912, is the only known local building designed by Charles Coolege Height (1841-1917), an influential and significant architect.

(2) This Church is one of only two early twentieth-century church buildings that survive in the South Boulevard district of Dilworth, Charlotte's first streetcar suburb.

(3) The Old Holy Comforter Episcopal Church is the former home of a Christian congregation which continues to play an important role in the religious life of Charlotte and Mecklenburg County.

The property owner, Duke Power Company, neither supports nor opposes historic designation.
The Department Review process revealed no conflicts between the historic designation and City projects. The N. C. Division of Archives and History concurs in the proposed designation.

Based on the current assessment and tax rate, the amount of deferrable taxes would be $988.16.

Recommend adoption of an ordinance designating the Old Holy Comforter Episcopal Church, including the exterior and the interior as well as the ground upon which it sits, as historic property.

3. Hearing to consider designation of the Old Advent Christian Church, (specifically the exterior and interior of the building and the entire tract of land on which it sits), located at 101 North McDowell Street, as historic property.

The Historic Properties Commission bases its judgement on the following considerations:

(1) The Old Advent Christian Church, erected in 1919-1920, was built according to plans which had been prepared by Louis H. Asbury (1877-1975), an architect of local and regional significance, for the King's Daughters Chapel of the Stonewall Jackson Training School near Concord; consequently, the Old Advent Christian Church affords a unique opportunity to examine the corpus of Asbury's work.

(2) This is the only church building which survives on McDowell Street, which once had many churches, some white and some black, along its route in First Ward.

(3) The Old Advent Christian Church contributes significantly to the retention of some historical feeling to the North McDowell Street streetscape.

The property owners fully support the historic designation.

The Department Review Process revealed no conflicts between the historic designation and City projects. The N. C. Division of Archives and History did not concur with the proposed designation. However, the Historic Properties Commission, after duly considering these comments, voted to proceed with the designation process.

Based on the current assessment and tax rate, the amount of deferrable taxes would be $1,346.40.
Recommend adoption of an ordinance designating the Old Advent Christian Church, including the exterior and interior of the building as well as the land upon which it sits, as historic property.
