Mayor Hyrick called the meeting to order and asked Martin Cranton of the Planning Department to do the presentation on City-County Consolidation with regards to Parks and Recreation, Arts and Science and Police Departments.

PARKS AND RECREATION

The two bodies discussed the pros and cons of consolidating this Department. Concern was raised with regards to bullet #5 which states that Parks and Recreation employees will not be laid-off nor negatively impacted with respect to pay.

No action was taken, however, it was the consensus that they add the wording "the objective" is that employees would not be laid off or be impacted negatively.
