AN ORDINANCE DESIGNATING A PROPERTY KNOWN AS THE "STONE ENTRY GATES OF JOHNSON C. SMITH UNIVERSITY" AS HISTORIC PROPERTY, SAID PROPERTY BEING LOCATED ON THE CAMPUS OF JOHNSON C. SMITH UNIVERSITY AT 100 BEATTIES FORD ROAD, CHARLOTTE, NORTH CAROLINA, AND RECORDED ON TAX PARCEL NUMBER 078-201-06, IN THE MECKLENBURG COUNTY TAX OFFICE.

WHEREAS, all of the prerequisites to the adoption of this ordinance prescribed in Chapter 160A, Article 19, Part 3B, as amended, of the General Statutes of North Carolina have been met; and

WHEREAS, the City Council of Charlotte, North Carolina, has taken into full consideration all statements and information presented at a joint public hearing held with the Charlotte-Mecklenburg Historic Properties Commission on the 17th day of June, 1985, on the question of designating a property known as the "Stone Entry Gates of Johnson C. Smith University" as historic property; and

WHEREAS, the "Stone Entry Gates of Johnson C. Smith University" symbolize the revitalization of an important black institution of higher education through the generous gift of funds by Mrs. Johnson C. Smith in 1921-22; and

WHEREAS, the "Stone Entry Gates of Johnson C. Smith University", designed by New York architect A. G. Lamont, occupy a strategically important site, at the intersection of Beatties Ford Rd. and W. Fifth St., and are a unique element in the built environment of Charlotte-Mecklenburg; and

WHEREAS, the Charlotte-Mecklenburg Historic Properties Commission has demonstrated that the property known as the "Stone Entry Gates of Johnson C. Smith University" possesses special significance in terms of its history, architecture, and/or cultural importance; and

WHEREAS, the property known as the "Stone Entry Gates of Johnson C. Smith University" possesses integrity of design, setting, workmanship, materials, and/or association; and

WHEREAS, the property known as the "Stone Entry Gates of Johnson C. Smith University" is vested in fee simple to Johnson C. Smith University, Inc.
Ordinance for the "Stone Entry Gates at Johnson C. Smith University"

NOW, THEREFORE BE IT ORDAINED by the City Council of Charlotte, North Carolina:

1. That the property known as the "Stone Entry Gates at Johnson C. Smith University" is hereby designated as historic property pursuant to Chapter 160A, Article 19, Part 3B, as amended, of the General Statutes of North Carolina. For purposes of description only, the location of said property is noted as being situated on the Campus of Johnson C. Smith University, 100 Beatties Ford Road, Charlotte, North Carolina, and recorded on Tax Parcel Number 078-201-06, in the Mecklenburg County Tax Office.

2. That said designated property may be materially altered, restored, moved, or demolished only following the issuance of a Certificate of Appropriateness by the Charlotte-Mecklenburg Historic Properties Commission. An application for a Certificate of Appropriateness authorizing the demolition of said property may not be denied. However, the effective date of such a Certificate may be delayed in accordance with Chapter 160A, Article 19, Part 3B, and amendments thereto, and hereinafter adopted.

3. That nothing in this ordinance shall be construed to prevent or delay the ordinary maintenance or repair of any architectural feature in or on said property that does not involve a change of design, material, or outer appearance thereof, nor to prevent or delay the making of emergency repairs, nor to prevent or delay the construction, reconstruction, alteration, restoration, demolition, or removal of any such feature when a building inspector or similar official certifies to the Commission that such action is required for the public safety because of an unsafe condition. Nothing herein shall be construed to prevent the property owner from making any use of this property not prohibited by other statutes, ordinances, or regulations.

4. That a suitable sign may be posted indicating that said property has been designated as historic property and containing any other appropriate information. If the owner consents, the sign shall be placed on said property.

5. That the owners and occupants of the property known as the "Stone Entry Gates of Johnson C. Smith University" be given notice of this ordinance as required by applicable law and that copies of this ordinance be filed and indexed in the offices of the City Clerk, Building Inspection Department, Mecklenburg County Register of Deeds, and the Tax Supervisor, as required by applicable law.

6. That which is designated as historic property shall be subject to Chapter 160A, Article 19, Part 3B, and any amendments to it and any amendments hereinafter adopted.

AN ORDINANCE DESIGNATING A PROPERTY KNOWN AS THE "OLD CARNEGIE LIBRARY" (EXTERIOR AND INTERIOR OF THE BUILDING AND A PARCEL OF LAND UPON WHICH THE BUILDING SITS AND EXTENDING TWENTY FEET FROM THE PERIMETER OF THE BUILDING) AS HISTORIC PROPERTY, SAID PROPERTY BEING LOCATED ON THE CAMPUS OF JOHNSON C. SMITH UNIVERSITY AT 100 BEATTIES FORD ROAD, CHARLOTTE, NORTH CAROLINA, AND RECORDED ON TAX PARCEL NUMBER 078-201-06, IN THE MECKLENBURG COUNTY TAX OFFICE.

WHEREAS, all the prerequisites to the adoption of this ordinance prescribed in Chapter 150A, Article 19, Part 3B, as amended, of the General Statutes of North Carolina have been met; and

WHEREAS, the City Council of Charlotte, North Carolina, has taken into full consideration all statements and information presented at a joint public hearing held with the Charlotte-Mecklenburg Historic Properties Commission on the 17th day of June, 1985, on the question of designating a property known as the "Old Carnegie Library" as historic property; and

WHEREAS, the "Old Carnegie Library" at Johnson C. Smith University, erected in 1911-12 and designed by the Charlotte architectural firm of Hunter and Gordon, is one of the older examples of the Neo Classical style that survives locally; and

WHEREAS, Hunter and Gordon were influential architects in Charlotte in the first quarter of the twentieth century; and

WHEREAS, the "Old Carnegie Library" served as the library of Johnson C. Smith University from 1912 until 1978 and continues to contribute to the success of this important black institution of higher learning; and

WHEREAS, the Charlotte-Mecklenburg Historic Properties Commission has demonstrated that the property known as the "Old Carnegie Library" possesses special significance in terms of its history, architecture, and/or cultural importance; and

WHEREAS, the property known as the "Old Carnegie Library" possesses integrity of design, setting, workmanship, materials, and/or association; and WHEREAS, the property known as the "Old Carnegie Library" is vested in fee simple to Johnson C. Smith University, Inc.

NOW, THEREFORE BE IT ORDAINED by the City Council of Charlotte, North Carolina:

1. That the property known as the "Old Carnegie Library" (exterior and interior of the building and a parcel of land upon which the building sits and extending twenty feet from the perimeter of the building) is hereby designated as historic property pursuant to Chapter 160A, Article 19, Part 3B, as amended, of the General Statutes of North Carolina. For purposes of description only, the location of said property is noted as being situated on the Campus of Johnson C. Smith University, 100 Beatties Ford Road, Charlotte, North Carolina, and recorded on Tax Parcel Number 078-201-06, in the Mecklenburg County Tax Office.

2. That said designated property may be materially altered, restored, moved, or demolished only following the issuance of a Certificate of Appropriateness by the Charlotte-Mecklenburg Historic Properties Commission. An application for a Certificate of Appropriateness authorizing the demolition of said property may not be denied. However, the effective date of such a Certificate may be delayed in accordance with Chapter 160A, Article 19, Part 3B, and amendments thereto, and hereinafter adopted.

3. That nothing in this ordinance shall be construed to prevent or delay the ordinary maintenance or repair of any architectural feature in or on said property that does not involve a change of design, material, or outer appearance thereof, nor to prevent or delay the making of emergency repairs, nor to prevent or delay the construction, reconstruction, alteration, restoration, demolition, or removal of any such feature when a building inspector or similar official certifies to the Commission that such action is required for the public safety because of an unsafe condition. Nothing herein shall be construed to prevent the property owner from making any use of this property not prohibited by WITNESS my hand and the corporate seal of the City of Charlotte, North Carolina, this the 18th day of June, 1985.

PAT SHARKEY, CITY CLERK

WHEREAS, all the prerequisites to the adoption of this ordinance prescribed in Chapter 160A, Article 19, Part 3B, as amended, of the General Statutes of North Carolina have been met; and

WHEREAS, the City Council of Charlotte, North Carolina, has taken into full consideration all statements and information presented at a joint public hearing held with the Charlotte-Mecklenburg Historic Properties Commission on the ______ day of ______, 1985, on the question of designating a property known as the "William Treloar House" as historic property; and

WHEREAS, the "William Treloar House" is a rare remnant of the Old First Ward neighborhood; and

WHEREAS, the "William Treloar House" is one of only two examples of "row house" architecture that survive in the central business district of Charlotte; and

WHEREAS, the original owner, William Treloar (1825-1894), a native of Cornwall, England, and, therefore, initially attracted to this region because of the gold mines, established himself as a leading businessman of this community; and

WHEREAS, the Charlotte-Mecklenburg Historic Properties Commission has demonstrated that the property known as the "William Treloar House" possesses special significance in terms of its history, architecture, and/or cultural importance; and

WHEREAS, the property known as the "William Treloar House" possesses integrity of design, setting, workmanship, materials, and/or association; and WHEREAS, the property known as the "William Treloar House" is vested in fee simple to Dora M. Dellinger.

NOW, THEREFORE BE IT ORDAINED by the City Council of Charlotte, North Carolina:

1. That the property known as the "William Treloar House" (the exterior of the building, excluding the one story addition on the right and the rear appendage, and the land upon which the building sits, excluding the land upon which the one story addition on the right and the rear appendage sit) is hereby designated as historic property pursuant to Chapter 160A, Article 19, Part 3B, as amended, of the General Statutes of North Carolina. For purposes of description only, the location of said property is noted as being situated at 328 North Brevard Street, Charlotte, North Carolina, and recorded on Tax Parcel Number 080-051-16, in the Mecklenburg County Tax Office.

2. That said designated property may be materially altered, restored, moved, or demolished only following the issuance of a Certificate of Appropriateness by the Charlotte-Necklenburg Historic Properties Commission. An application for a Certificate of Appropriateness authorizing the demolition of said property may not be denied. However, the effective date of such a Certificate may be delayed in accordance with Chapter 160A, Article 19, Part 3B, and amendments thereto, and hereinafter adopted.

3. That nothing in this ordinance shall be construed to prevent or delay the ordinary maintenance or repair of any architectural feature in or on said property that does not involve a change of design, material, or outer appearance thereof, nor to prevent or delay the making of emergency repairs, nor to prevent or delay the construction, reconstruction, alteration, restoration, demolition or removal of any such feature when a building inspector or similar official certifies to the Commission that such action is required for the public safety because of an unsafe condition.
