Whereas, representatives from the Charlotte Chapter of the German-American Chamber of Commerce, the Alemannia Society of Charlotte, the German Language & Culture Foundation, Kühne & Nagel, Kurt and Regina Waldhausen, and the German Saturday School of Charlotte have commissioned the painting and installation of a Buddy Bear statue to recognize the important cultural and economic ties that the City of Charlotte has with the German community.

Whereas, Buddy Bear installations are located in several major international hubs, including Hong Kong; Vienna, Switzerland; Istanbul, Turkey; and Sydney, Australia. These fiberglass bears are painted by local artists to symbolize the message of peace, international understanding, and tolerance among nations.
