- Kimble: It's an option for the June 10 meeting that if you are still not comfortable, you don't send it forward. You are in control right now at the Committee level as to when you want to recommend for the study to go for Public Comment.
- Carter: Madam Chair, if we could ask the staff to have discussions with the two Senators to identify their issues and then to have materials inspection within our staff to see where we could affect a compromise or have other suggestions that would be relevant.
- Dulin: Madam Chair, let me comment on that. Nancy if we are going to ask them to do that, we have to give them very clear direction as to what we would like for them to ask. Senators Rucho and Clodfelter really do not have a lot of free time, but we have to give them very clear directions. It's not a chit chat call at all.
- Kimble: We are in the loop on discussions Dana Fenton has been in Raleigh, he has been there with Ms. Carter. I think we know what the issues are at staff level. I think we have the ability to talk through the issues and bring back something that might be good and might be negotiated out. We could take a shot at that, if we can't we will come back and tell you we can't do it.
- Burgess: Is that reasonable, Ms. Carter?
- Carter: Yes, it is and I will be
