

What is the website about?

The goal of CharlotteBusinessResources.com is to connect you with the information you need to start and operate a successful business. The portal represents a community-wide collaborative effort by a network of organizations committed to working together to save you time and money by providing relevant business resources & information. The consortium of business organizations includes:

- Business Expansion Funding Corporation
- Charlotte Chamber of Commerce
- Charlotte-Mecklenburg Library
- Centralina Development Corporation (CDC)
- Carolinas-Virginia Minority Supplier Development Council (CVMSDC)
- National Association of Women Business Owners (NAWBO)
- Latin American Chamber of Commerce (LACC)
- Ben Craig Center
- City of Charlotte
- Mecklenburg County
- UNCC Venturprise
- CPCC Small Business Center
- Queen City Forward
- SBTDC
- SCORE
- Self-Help Credit Union
- The Employer's Association
- Small Business Administration (SBA)
- CharlotteWorks

What information can I find on the website?

The revamped CharlotteBusinessResources.com will keep you updated on the following, among others:

- Premium calendar feature – Categorize your events via a specified filter and subscribe to RSS feeds per your selected filter.
- Filtering tool – Customize your searches to meet your individual business needs.
- Social media – Join the conversation! Get engaged with the business community by “liking” the website on Facebook and “follow” the website on Twitter.
- Newsletter – Sign up to stay current on news, information, and resources.
- Partner organizations – Use the interactive filters to learn about business licensing and permitting, financing, contracting opportunities, exporting, networking, training and development, and much more!

How can the website help my business and my clients?

CharlotteBusinessResources.com will connect you, your business, and your business clients with extensive information and resources. Regardless of your business stage you will find useful information.

Visit CharlotteBusinessResources.com today and get engaged!

