

Request:

My name is Lindsey Workman, I'm helping out Parker Cains with some of his media content and PR for his At Large Charlotte City Council race! I'd love to speak to you about having him on your Podcast. He's an awesome young moderate Republican with some great ideas that will make a big impact our community!

Thanks for your time look forward to hearing from you!

Response:

Thank you for your request. The city has created an online portal for candidate requests, which is available at charlottenc.gov/Candidates. In the future, please use this form for any requests of city staff, as part of our streamlined city election candidate process. Any information shared with one candidate, must be provided to all candidates, to ensure impartiality.

Unfortunately, featuring any candidate on the city's podcast is a violation of the city's employee political activity policy, which prohibits used of city resources for political purposes. See attached our Human Resources Standards and Guidelines document, section 7, regarding Political Activity for more details.
