There are too many apartment buildings now. Not enough of our resources are allocated to ROADS, and Miss Boyd wonders why we don't focus on infrastructure more. Our planning is outdated, (I took this to mean our area plans are old-she said 25 years old, and outdated). Let's take a pause, regroup and replan and refocus on our updated goals. Police quality should be improved and Council Members never met a zoning change that they did not like.

Reference 83 - 0.13% Coverage

The Police dept and fire dept need to expand to ensure that all of Charlotte is protected. Decrease time it takes for police and fire to get to scene. We also need to enforce rules in mixed use communities so that everyone feels comfortable living their.

Reference 103 - 0.30% Coverage

The crime will be worse in 5 years. Public safety is important for the quality of a community and for business growth. Also the schools will be worse. No one is willing to address the real issues. Racism is called everytime someone points out that the issues in the schools is due to the parents in the black community who really don't do much parenting. Charter schools are becoming more prevalent in areas of charlotte with bad schools. The effect is that the bad schools get even worse, because the parents who do care take their kids out of public and put them into the charter schools.

Reference 104 - 0.12% Coverage

An aquarium would be a great drawl for Charlotte. More trade jobs for those who need a good job but don't have a college education. Also, tying back to transportation, people need to be able to get to their jobs in a reasonable amount of time. CMPD is doing a good job, but he like to see more cops in troubled neighborhoods. He'd like Charlotte to work more with the media to get rid of the negative perceptions that this isn't a safe city. He also mentioned that people don't mingle enough and he'd like to see more events that are inclusive of everyone and more free parking options to encourage participation at events. More sidewalks in neighborhoods (he mentioned Mt. Holly-Huntersville Road/Bellhaven Bv)

Not a lot different than it is now. I would hope for the continued safe feeling, where people could feel at ease parking and walking in to their jobs. That being said, a continued interest in attracting jobs to the area and an expansion of business. After hours, I would expect to see a healthy selection of dinner options as well as options for evening entertainment. I hope after work hours would include activities to cause families to come in to Charlotte rather than the normal rush out of the city.
