Where uncertainty exists with respect to the boundaries of the zoning districts shown on the Zoning Maps, the following rules shall be used to interpret the maps:

- (1) Where a map shows a boundary line located within a street or alley right-of-way, railroad or utility line right-of-way, easement, or navigable or non-navigable waterway, it shall be considered to be in the center of the right-of-way, easement, or waterway. If the actual location of such right-of-way, easement, or waterway varies slightly from the location as shown on a map, then the actual location shall control.
- (2) Where a map shows a boundary line as being located a specific distance from a street line or other physical feature, this distance shall control.
- (3) Where a map shows a district boundary to approximately coincide with a property line or city, town, or county border, the property line or city, town, or county border shall be considered to be the district boundary, unless otherwise indicated.
- (4) Where a map shows a district boundary to not coincide or approximately coincide with any street, alley, railroad, waterway, or property line, and no dimensions are shown, the location of the boundary shall be determined by use of the scale appearing on the map.
- (5) If, because of error or omission in the maps, any property within the jurisdiction of this ordinance is not shown as being in a zoning district, such property will be classified as R-3 until changed by amendment.
- (6) In instances when a zoning case file contains detailed information regarding the boundary, that information will be used as the correct boundary location.
- (7) In instances where none of the above methods are sufficient to resolve the boundary location, the reasonable maintenance of a regular boundary will be used to establish the boundary location.

Street, commercial arterial (Class III-C).

A multi-lane, major roadway connecting Class I or II roads with lesser streets in the network or connecting this region to other regions. It is designed to accommodate large volumes of traffic at moderate speeds while also providing, as a major part of its function, direct access to nonresidential high trip generating land uses. A Class III-C road may be part of state primary or secondary highway systems.

Street, freeway or expressway (Class I).

A multi-lane, grade-separated limited access major road connecting this region, major activity centers, or major roads with other regions, major activity centers, or major roads and designed to accommodate large traffic volumes at high speeds. Such a facility may be part of the interstate, federal, or state primary highway system. A class I road will be built to or approaching interstate design standards.

Street, limited access arterial (Class II).

A multi-lane limited access major road connecting major activity centers or major roads and designed to accommodate large volumes of traffic at moderate speeds. PART 2: DEFINITIONS

Street line.

Street, local (Class VI).

A two-lane roadway which provides access directly to adjoining low/medium density land uses and conducts traffic to local limited and Class V streets which serve the area. The Class VI road is designed to accommodate low volumes of traffic at low speeds. A local limited street (Class VI-L) serves the same system function as the Class VI street but is located in residential environments which have been created through special conditions or design considerations.

These unique environments include planned developments and other similar techniques or cul-de-sac streets in conventional subdivisions. A Class VI-L street may not provide vehicular access to elementary, junior or senior high schools, colleges or official sites for such schools or to proposed places of public assembly, including public or private parks, recreation facilities or greenways.

Street, major arterial (Class III).

A multi-lane major roadway connecting Class I, II or III with lesser streets in the network or connecting the region to other regions. It is designed to accommodate large volumes of traffic at moderate speeds, but it is not intended to provide primary access to adjoining high trip generating uses.

Street, minor arterial (Class IV).

A roadway, frequently two lanes, providing a connection from Class II and Class III roads to other lesser roads in the system and designed to accommodate moderate volumes of traffic at moderate speeds. It does not have a significant function in connecting different regions and, therefore, it usually only handles trips for short to moderate distances.

Street, private.

An interior circulation road designed and constructed to carry vehicular traffic from public streets within or adjoining a site to private buildings or land uses, to parking and service areas and which is not maintained by the public.
