Seigle Mixed Use

Rezoning Site Plan

Urban Design Partners

1. Architectural and Design Standards:
   - The site shall be designed to conform to the standards set forth in the Rezoning Plan.
   - The site shall provide for the preservation and enhancement of the historic and architectural character of the neighborhood.
   - The site shall be designed to provide for the preservation and enhancement of the historic and architectural character of the neighborhood.

2. Environmental Features:
   - The site shall be designed to provide for the preservation and enhancement of the historic and architectural character of the neighborhood.
   - The site shall be designed to provide for the preservation and enhancement of the historic and architectural character of the neighborhood.

3. Architectural and Design Standards:
   - The site shall be designed to conform to the standards set forth in the Rezoning Plan.
   - The site shall provide for the preservation and enhancement of the historic and architectural character of the neighborhood.
   - The site shall be designed to provide for the preservation and enhancement of the historic and architectural character of the neighborhood.

4. Environmental Features:
   - The site shall be designed to provide for the preservation and enhancement of the historic and architectural character of the neighborhood.
   - The site shall be designed to provide for the preservation and enhancement of the historic and architectural character of the neighborhood.

5. Architectural and Design Standards:
   - The site shall be designed to conform to the standards set forth in the Rezoning Plan.
   - The site shall provide for the preservation and enhancement of the historic and architectural character of the neighborhood.
   - The site shall be designed to provide for the preservation and enhancement of the historic and architectural character of the neighborhood.

6. Environmental Features:
   - The site shall be designed to provide for the preservation and enhancement of the historic and architectural character of the neighborhood.
   - The site shall be designed to provide for the preservation and enhancement of the historic and architectural character of the neighborhood.

1. Architectural and Design Standards:
   - The site shall be designed to conform to the standards set forth in the Rezoning Plan.
   - The site shall provide for the preservation and enhancement of the historic and architectural character of the neighborhood.
   - The site shall be designed to provide for the preservation and enhancement of the historic and architectural character of the neighborhood.

2. Environmental Features:
   - The site shall be designed to provide for the preservation and enhancement of the historic and architectural character of the neighborhood.
   - The site shall be designed to provide for the preservation and enhancement of the historic and architectural character of the neighborhood.

3. Architectural and Design Standards:
   - The site shall be designed to conform to the standards set forth in the Rezoning Plan.
   - The site shall provide for the preservation and enhancement of the historic and architectural character of the neighborhood.
   - The site shall be designed to provide for the preservation and enhancement of the historic and architectural character of the neighborhood.

4. Environmental Features:
   - The site shall be designed to provide for the preservation and enhancement of the historic and architectural character of the neighborhood.
   - The site shall be designed to provide for the preservation and enhancement of the historic and architectural character of the neighborhood.

5. Architectural and Design Standards:
   - The site shall be designed to conform to the standards set forth in the Rezoning Plan.
   - The site shall provide for the preservation and enhancement of the historic and architectural character of the neighborhood.
   - The site shall be designed to provide for the preservation and enhancement of the historic and architectural character of the neighborhood.

6. Environmental Features:
   - The site shall be designed to provide for the preservation and enhancement of the historic and architectural character of the neighborhood.
   - The site shall be designed to provide for the preservation and enhancement of the historic and architectural character of the neighborhood.

1. Architectural and Design Standards:
   - The site shall be designed to conform to the standards set forth in the Rezoning Plan.
   - The site shall provide for the preservation and enhancement of the historic and architectural character of the neighborhood.
   - The site shall be designed to provide for the preservation and enhancement of the historic and architectural character of the neighborhood.

2. Environmental Features:
   - The site shall be designed to provide for the preservation and enhancement of the historic and architectural character of the neighborhood.
   - The site shall be designed to provide for the preservation and enhancement of the historic and architectural character of the neighborhood.

3. Architectural and Design Standards:
   - The site shall be designed to conform to the standards set forth in the Rezoning Plan.
   - The site shall provide for the preservation and enhancement of the historic and architectural character of the neighborhood.
   - The site shall be designed to provide for the preservation and enhancement of the historic and architectural character of the neighborhood.

4. Environmental Features:
   - The site shall be designed to provide for the preservation and enhancement of the historic and architectural character of the neighborhood.
   - The site shall be designed to provide for the preservation and enhancement of the historic and architectural character of the neighborhood.

5. Architectural and Design Standards:
   - The site shall be designed to conform to the standards set forth in the Rezoning Plan.
   - The site shall provide for the preservation and enhancement of the historic and architectural character of the neighborhood.
   - The site shall be designed to provide for the preservation and enhancement of the historic and architectural character of the neighborhood.

6. Environmental Features:
   - The site shall be designed to provide for the preservation and enhancement of the historic and architectural character of the neighborhood.
   - The site shall be designed to provide for the preservation and enhancement of the historic and architectural character of the neighborhood.